

Website Bookin System Integration

In order to integrate website booking system with the in-house system we need following things:

- ip address of the server where the database of in-house system is hosted
- access parameters to the in-house database
- structure of the part of database that is used for storing the reservation and payment info
- detailed specification of the database tables and fields that are affected by reservation input (including payment)